What is a House Call?

The South Carolina Association of Non-profit Organizations can now bring four popular programs right to your door step! You can pick the date, time and location best for your organization. The training events are typically two to four hours, though they can be customized into a full day or half day format that will include a case study and other small groups exercises throughout the day.

We currently offer Four Trainings:

- All Aboard! The Journey to Board Excellence
- Making a Difference Through Effective Advocacy
- Starting a New Nonprofit: What to Know to Do it Right !
- Resource Development for Boards

All Aboard! The Journey to Board Excellence

This two hour training is designed to highlight the most important aspects of board operations. This workshop is appropriate for established and new boards and is a great way to kick off a new year. The workshop includes:

- Roles and responsibilities of boards, individual board members and staff
- The legal and social accountability of boards
- Principles for sound financial management
- The board's role as employer
- Effective board development

Making a Difference Through Effective Advocacy

While nonprofits are natural advocates for their causes, there may be ways you can more effectively tell your story. Topics covered will include:

- Introduction to nonprofit advocacy and government relations
- Getting organized for advocacy
- Lobbying: Legal opportunities and limits
- Effective advocacy and communications

Starting a New Nonprofit: What to Know to Do it Right!

So you have a mission and a goal, but what is the next step? This seminar will walk you through the process of starting a new nonprofit. Questions answered will include:

- What issues should we consider before starting a nonprofit?
- Why should we incorporate? How do we incorporate in South Carolina?
- What forms and documents do we file?
- Why should we apply for 501(c)(3) status? How much should it cost?
- Do I need a lawyer to form a nonprofit?

Resource Development for Boards

Need to get your board more engaged in recruiting resources for your organization? Give your board members the information and motivation they need to become successful fundraisers through this workshop. Major topics include:

- Board's fundraising responsibilities
- Overview of different types of fundraising
- Different stages of fundraising
